

This is to inform you that, as a 160 meter operator, I am in full support of RM-10352 limiting wideband modes to 1843 and above. This would protect the lower 43kHz for CW and digital modes. I don't think a voluntary band will be sufficient as there are always those who find pleasure in flaunting such plans.
Yours truly, Richard E. Moser K4DJ